

Bose Professional Named a Best Place to Work in 2024

FRAMINGHAM, Mass. – Jan. 18, 2024 – Bose Professional is thrilled to announce it has been recognized as one of the "Best Places to Work" in Boston, Massachusetts for 2024. This prestigious honor is awarded by Built In and underscores Bose Professional's commitment to developing a positive, innovative workplace culture as an independent company. Built In is a leading platform featuring tech companies and startups and provides a place to learn about the tech industry nationwide, build connections and identify companies that align with personal values.

The annual Best Places to Work awards celebrate companies who offer the best compensation packages, total rewards and culture programs among their peers. Unlike any other awards program, an algorithm determines winners based on company perks, benefits and salary information. Bose Professional's inclusion highlights its dedication to creating an exceptional work environment.

Bose Professional was recognized on two distinct 2024 Best Places to Work lists by Built In:

- Boston, MA Best Places to Work: This category acknowledges Bose Professional's outstanding offering for companies in the Boston area—one of the key tech hubs within the United States.
- Boston, MA Best Midsize Places to Work: Specific to company size, Bose Professional's recognition reflects its ranking compared to like-sized companies in the Boston area.

“Being named one of Boston's Best Places to Work—twice—is a reflection of our team's passion and commitment to creating an environment of opportunity for our employees,” shared John Maier, CEO of Bose Professional. “It's an honor that recognizes the rich culture we're building—a culture focused on nurturing people's talents and well-being, and ensuring every team member feels valued.”
